

Employee Handbook

Version: 1.0

Company Values

The company values collaboration, integrity, innovation, and customer focus.

Code of Conduct

Employees are expected to maintain professional behavior and treat colleagues with respect.

Harassment, discrimination, and inappropriate workplace behavior are not tolerated.

Remote Work

Employees may work remotely with manager approval.

Hybrid employees are expected to attend required office meetings.

Performance Reviews

Performance reviews occur twice each year.

Employees receive feedback from managers and team members.

Training and Development

Employees are encouraged to participate in internal training programs and external learning opportunities.

Expense Reimbursement

Business expenses require manager approval and must be submitted within 30 days.

Confidentiality

Employees must protect company information during and after employment.